

MAKE THE CALL: HUNGRY KIDS NEED YOU NOW

Breaking news from Capitol Hill today! The Senate Committee on Agriculture passed bipartisan legislation to end the summer hunger crisis for kids in need.

Join us in thanking our leaders for taking this critical step forward. Please pick up the phone and tell the Senator you are grateful the “Improving Child Nutrition Integrity and Access Act of 2016” was passed through the Senate Agriculture Committee.

A simple phone call is still the most powerful way to share your voice. When you call 877-752-6479 we will connect you to a staffer of one of the committee members. They need to hear from you how important their support is to ensure we continue to move this bill forward.

It only takes a moment. Simply tell thank them for standing up for kids today and urge them to continue moving this bill across the finish line.

Below are some words you can say verbatim. You can also come up with your own message. Thank you for being a part of this important moment.

“

Hi, my name is _____. I'd like to leave a message. I'm calling to thank the Senator for supporting the Improving Child Nutrition Integrity and Access Act of 2016. This bill will improve the summer meals program and ensure this critical food reaches more of the hungry kids who need it.

The Senator's support is critical and I hope he/she continues to push this bill across the finish line. Hungry kids can't wait. It's time to get this done. Thank you.
